

DAVID GATEWOOD

B.A., M.B.A, M.A., Ph.D.

Interim Dean, Health Sciences & University Programs

Shasta College, Redding, California, USA

Facilitator Since: 2001

Foundation Academy Graduate: Michigan 1999-2000

Dr. David Gatewood is currently working in Northern California at Shasta College where he serves as Interim Dean, Health Sciences & University Programs. David also serves on the Board of several not-for-profit organizations dedicated to public-private partnerships and committed to developing education pathways leading to social and economic mobility.

Over the past 30 years, David has been privileged to serve in a variety of team leadership roles in colleges and universities across the country, with experiences in academic administration in the performing and visual arts, business, health sciences, career education, and workforce development as well as administrative experience in student services, continuing education, facilities design & construction, grant administration, fund-raising, and budget & finance administration. David received his B.A. in Music from Oregon State University, earned a joint M.A. and M.B.A. in Arts Administration and Business from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and received his Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from the University of Michigan. His primary areas of interest are in organizational development, experiential learning, and community & business engagement. In addition to his daily work as a higher education administrator, consultant, and community volunteer, David has been associated with the Chair Academy for over twenty years and has contributed to the development of community college leaders globally, including work in the USA, Canada, Australia, China, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates.